Dear Sir:

In response to the Notice of Non-Compliant Amendment dated August 13, 2002, Applicant resubmits herewith the Amendment filed on August 7, 2002 with the changes made to the specification manually marked.

The Notice indicated that a marked copy of the specification changes is needed. However, Applicant already provided a marked copy indicating the changes made to the specification, the abstract, and the claims attached to the Amendment of August 7, 2002. Because the Amendment was submitted through facsimile, it seems that the marks in the amended portion of the specification did not show in PTO's fax copy.

Thus, Applicant manually marked the changes made to the specification this time. Otherwise, the attached amendment is identical to the Amendment filed on August 7, 2002.

Respectively submitted
